

Accessible Housing Series

Join the Center for Independence of Individuals with Disabilities (CID) and Project Sentinel for our four part Accessible Housing Series

We will cover a variety of topics in the following workshops:

Part 1: Tips and Trick in Affordable and Accessible Housing Searches

When:
April 22, 2024
11am – 12:15 pm PT

Part 2: Housing Accommodations & Modifications are and How to Go About Getting Them

When:
April 29, 2024
11am – 12:15 pm PT

Part 3: Interactive Process of Housing Accommodations & Modifications

When:
May 6, 2024
11am – 12:15 pm PT

Part 4: Disability Discrimination in Housing and What to Do About It

When:
May 13, 2024
11am – 12:15 pm PT

Who should participate?

Legal aid advocates, housing advocates, wraparound service specialists, disability advocates, disabled tenants, family members of disabled folks... anyone who works with, or is a tenant with a disability!

Presenters:

Dr. Laura Harrison, Housing Accessibility Modification Coordinator, Center for Independence of Individuals with Disabilities (CID)

Josie Fulton, Community Outreach Coordinator, Project Sentinel

This series is meant to inform and empower both tenants and service providers in finding and maintaining accessible housing for people with disabilities. The series will be offered live via Zoom and recorded, to eventually be developed into an online toolkit. If you have any questions about the training and/or need technical assistance, please email Josie Fulton or Laura Harrison.